

Vendor Pricing for Services Required

Mackin is a state-of-the-art educational distributor of print, nonprint and digital materials, uniquely designed to provide our customers access to over 5 million items from more than 18,000 publishers through our continuously updated online catalog: www.mackin.com.

Upon a request for proposal or a potential contract, Mackin will offer Montana State Library or any other library competitive discounts off our already discounted catalog at www.mackin.com. As always, the MackinVIA platform is FREE, so you will only spend money on the materials you purchase for your libraries.

We provide free custom, fully enhanced MARC records with purchase of digital materials. There are no fees for hosting, technical support, reporting, or standard marketing.

The annual cost for working with Mackin is what YOU want to spend on materials. We work with you to meet your budget!
